Dear Women Studies students,

We are proud to announce that Women Studies has a new name! As of Spring 2020, our official name will be changed to Women, Gender & Sexuality Studies. To celebrate, we are going to revamp our website, and we need your help!

We are announcing a call for artwork from our students: help us create an updated image of our program for our website, and get a $250 bursar account scholarship in the process! Artwork will be used in the top panel of our website redesign, as well as in future brochures and program materials, and artists names will be featured.

We are looking for artwork that is original and celebrates what we do together here in the program as we explore justice, intersectionality, theory, activisms, and more.

Who may Enter:
Submitters must be current UNM students who will be registering for classes in Spring 2020, with preference given to students who are majors, minors, or graduate certificate students in Women Studies.

Submitted designs must warrant that (1) the Submitter is the sole creator, (2) the Design is original and contains no material from other copyrighted or unpublished works, and (3) the Design does not violate or infringe any personal or property rights of others, whether common law or statutory.

Design Submission:
Please email submissions to Brandzel@unm.edu by December 1, 2019. In the subject line of the email, please write “WGSS Art Contest.”

In your email, please attach 1) the design (see below formats) and 2) a short statement describing your relationship to the Women Studies program and the intent or goals of your design, and 3) the release form with your signature. In your short statement, be sure to tell us whether or not you are a major, minor, or graduate certificate student.

Design Submissions must:

a) be an original design
b) be uploaded in high-resolution (300dpi) digital format in JPG, PNG, PDF, or TIFF.
c) have a minimum resolution of at least 150dpi;
d) have a maximum size of no more than 5 Mb;
e) not contain copyrighted material of another person, violate or infringe upon another person’s rights, including copyright, nor contain threatening, offensive, or abusive material.

Participation in the Call for Design Submissions and/or acceptance of a scholarship constitutes permission for Women, Gender & Sexuality Studies at UNM to use the design in any and all media for any purpose.

Awardees
Three awardees will be selected by the faculty and will be notified by December 15, 2019. Each awardee will receive a $250 scholarship to their UNM Bursar account for Spring 2020.
I submit this art design for the Women, Gender & Sexuality Studies (WGSS) website art competition. I submit that I am the sole creator, my design is original and does not contain any copyrighted material, and that this design does not violate or infringe on any personal or property rights of any others. If I receive the scholarship award from WGSS, I grant permission for WGSS to use the design in any and all media for any purpose, in perpetuity. I understand the scholarship award will be $250 in my bursar’s account for Spring 2020.
